

Pregnancy Resources of Abilene

Offering Help, Hope and Healing

March 17, 2010

Dear IRB Board,

Deborah Bohlken Garner is in a supervised internship at Pregnancy Resources of Abilene (PRA) through Texas State University. As part of her internship and at the request of the agency Deborah will gather client data to complete a needs assessment that provides a descriptive look at the client population between the years of 2004-2009. As part of her supervised internship Deborah is considered an agency employee and has access to de-identified client data. Deborah has signed a confidentiality statement. Information gathered by Deborah for this research project will not be published. It will be used solely for internal and educational purposes. All data will be reported in the aggregate.

Sincerely,

Holly Whitehead, Executive Director
