

CHILD DEVELOPMENT CENTER

THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT AUSTIN

1 Unversity Station D3200 - Austin, TX 78712 http://www.utexas.edu/childcenter/

October 28, 2009

Ms. Ana Maria Cabezas,

This letter is to inform you that your request to interview the parents at our Child Development Center to gather research data for your thesis has been approved pending the approval of the Institutional Review Board at Texas State University. The site approved for you to visit is the San Jacinto Child Developmental Center (Heathers Mathers, 512-475-7040).

You can refer to the Center's website, which is http://www.utexas.edu/childcenter, for the centers' addresses and hours of operation. The Center Site Directors will be notified of your plans.

Please contact me at 512-471-7040 or by cmail at Sandy.Briley@austin.utexas.cdu if you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Sandy Briley, PhD

Director, UT Child Development Center

1925 San Jacinto

SSW 2.400

512-471-7040

http://www.utcxas.cdu/childcenter/

Dandy (Inley

October 28, 2009

Ms. Ana Maria Cabezas,

This letter is to inform you that your request to interview the parents at our Child Development Center to gather research data for your thesis has been approved.

You can refer to the Center's website, which is http://www.fcs.txstate.edu/cdc, for the centers' addresses and hours of operation. The Center staff will be notified of your plans.

Please contact me at 512-245-2621 or by email at jb95@txstate.edu if you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

June A Blades

Clinical Assistant Professor-FCS Director-Child Development Center Texas State University-San Marcos

will Glades

512-245-2621